.....RESPONDENTS

Petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India praying that in the circumstances stated in the affidavit filed herein the High Court may be pleased to issue Writ, Order or direction, more particularly one in the nature of Writ of Certiorari calling records from the Respondent No.7 pertaining to LG ASR Nos. 3778 and 3779 of 2003 dated 18th January, 2005 and set aside the orders passed in IA No. 888 and 889 of 2001 dated 7th July, 2003 by the District Judge, Karimnagar as illegal, arbitrary, without jurisdiction and violative of Articles 14, 16 and 31 of Constitution of India and pass such other order or orders as are deemed fit and proper by this Hon'ble Court in the circumstances of the case and in the interest of justice.

For the Petitioners: MR.P. Venkataswamy, Advocate.

For Respondent No.7: Government Pleader for Land Grabbing.

The Court made the following:

ORDER: (per Sri B. Sudershan Reddy, J)

The Special Court did not commit any error whatsoever in dismissing the appeal preferred by the petitioners herein against the interlocutory order passed by the Special Tribunal on the ground that no appeal under Section 7-A(3) of the A.P Act XII of 1982 against an interlocutory order lies to the Special Court. The view taken by the Special Court is not vitiated by any error apparent on the face of the record requiring our interference in exercise of Certiorari jurisdiction. It is needless to observe that the remedy of the petitioners to challenge the order passed by the Special Tribunal is left open.

The Writ Petition is accordingly dismissed.
